1. Introduction

The report of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China pointed out: "Core socialist values represent the contemporary Chinese spirit and are a crystallization of the values shared by all Chinese people. We will focus on fostering a new generation capable of shouldering the mission of national rejuvenation; we will offer them better guidance, expose them to practice, and provide institutional guarantees. We will draw on core socialist values to guide education, efforts to raise cultural-ethical standards, and the creation, production, and distribution of cultural and intellectual products, and see that all areas of social development are imbued with these values and that they become part of people's thinking and behavior." Contemporary college students are in the critical period of world outlook, outlook on life and the formation of values. Strengthening the education of socialist core values for college students will help college students to correctly understand their own values, clarify the future development direction, and fully extend their destiny to the country and nation. The fate of the fusion is combined. At the same time, this is also an important condition for adapting to the development needs of the times and promoting the united struggle and self-improvement of the people of all nationalities under the guidance of the common ideological foundation. In the daily ideological and political education of college students, whether they can recognize the importance of strengthening the education of socialist core values and promote the sustained and healthy development of the cause of socialism with Chinese characteristics is an issue that should be considered by the state and the ideological and political teaching workers of colleges and universities. This article has carried on the thinking and exploration on how to integrate the socialist core values into the daily ideological and political education of college students.

2. The Overview of core socialist values

The concept of socialist core values was clearly put forward in the report of the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China. The basic concepts and specific contents were elaborated, and the value goals and pursuits of the socialist society were pointed out, namely, advocating prosperity, democracy, civilization and harmony. Freedom, equality, justice, the rule of law, patriotism, dedication, integrity, and friendly socialist core values. The core socialist values mainly have three levels of specific content. They are independent and mutually reinforcing, which fully reflects the current value objectives at the national level, the value orientation at the social level, and the value norms at the individual level of citizens. At present, China is in the critical period of the transformation and upgrading of the development model and the comprehensive deepening of reform. People's ideology and values are diversified, and the independence, selectivity and diversity of people's ideological activities are constantly increasing, leading to social problems and society. Contradictions are increasing. Only by vigorously carrying forward the core socialist values and establishing the common values of the members of the whole society will there be a unified will and action to form a strong cohesive force and centripetal force. Cultivating and practicing the core socialist values can effectively integrate social consciousness, unite social consensus and resolve social contradictions, thereby aggregating the power of society, forming the greatest common denominator to enhance social cohesion, and promoting the construction of socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era. And the realization of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation is of great significance.

3. The necessity of carrying out the education of core socialist values for college students

3.1 It's conducive to college students to form correct values

General Secretary Xi Jinping pointed out: "A nation will prosper only when its young people thrive; a country will be full of hope and have a great tomorrow only when its younger generations have ideals, ability, and a strong sense of responsibility." The value of the young generation is chosen for the whole society. The formation of values is decisive. As the future of the country and the hope of the nation, young students will educate them on the core socialist values, help college students to form correct values, promote the further development of society, and promote the construction of socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era and the Chinese nation. The realization of the great revival of the Chinese dream. Therefore, it is of great significance to integrate the education of socialist core values in the daily ideological and political education of colleges and universities.

3.2 It's the core content of daily ideological and political education for college students

The 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China put forward clear requirements for cultivating and practicing the core socialist values. Therefore, the daily ideological and political education of college students needs to strengthen the education and edification of students under the guidance of socialist core values, so that they can always establish the lofty ideal of communism and the common ideal of socialism with Chinese characteristics, and fully carry forward the nation. Spirit and the spirit of the times, form a correct socialist concept of honor and disgrace, establish correct socialist values, orientations and norms, and urge the young college students to actively participate in the great practice of building a socialist cause with Chinese characteristics in the new era, in order to realize the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Sparkling youth and enthusiasm. Therefore, the core socialist values are the core content of the daily ideological and political education of contemporary college students.

3.3 It's conducive to the realization of the fundamental requirements of strengthening morality education in colleges and universities

The socialist education cause aims to establish a talented builder and a reliable successor for the country and society to cultivate a large number of socialist undertakings with Chinese characteristics. The premise of the tree is the virtue, and the fundamental goal of strengthening morality education is to cultivate more high-quality talents with more comprehensive development. Colleges and universities are the main source of high-quality talents for the country and bear a major historical mission to promote national development. The state's requirements for contemporary college students not only need to have good moral cultivation, but also need to have correct national value goals, social value orientations and personal value criteria. Therefore, in the daily ideological and political education of college students, actively cultivating and practicing the core socialist values will help to comprehensively strengthen and improve the ideological and political work of colleges and universities and promote the realization of the goal of strengthening morality education

4. The effective ways to integrate core socialist values into college students' ideological and political education

4.1 Fully integrate core socialist values with college classroom teaching

In the process of classroom teaching in colleges and universities, it is necessary to fully integrate the education of socialist core values, and thus rely on the role of curriculum education to realize the education and guidance of the values of college students. First of all, we must fully ideologically play the role of the main position of political theory class, and cultivate the socialist core values of college students as an important task of ideological and political theory courses, aiming at the contemporary college students' hobbies, personality traits and cognitive abilities, etc. Improve the current ideological and political theory class education, stimulate their interest in learning socialist core values, and promote the ideological and political theory classroom education to fully implement the cultivation and guidance of socialist core values. At the same time, in order to avoid the single mode of ideological and political education for college students, it is necessary to strengthen the overall awareness and system thinking, play an important role in each course and the teacher's responsibility for teaching and educating people, and integrate the socialist core values throughout the student's learning process.

4.2 Combine the education of core socialist values with the education of the theme class

Colleges and universities should take the theme class education as an important position for the education of socialist core values. In the process of carrying out the education of the socialist core values of college students, we must give full play to the ideological education advantages of counselors, and combine the characteristics of each major of the colleges, and carry out a series of patriotism education, history education, traditional culture education, honest education and rule of law education. The theme class meeting highlights the theme of socialist core values education and actively guides the transformation of students' ideological concepts. It is necessary to combine current affairs, carry out targeted thematic education, carry out a variety of high-quality activities such as socialist core values discussion, story sharing, sitcom performance, speech essays, poster competitions, knowledge contests, etc., to promote the conscious cultivation and practice of students. Socialist core values.

4.3 Integrating the education of core socialist values into the second classroom construction in colleges

Colleges and universities should integrate the socialist core values education into the second classroom construction of students' cultural and sports activities and community activities. First, vigorously carry out traditional sports activities and traditional ethnic art activities, so that the majority of students can fully absorb the precious nutrition of Chinese traditional values in the fun and education. The second is to integrate the socialist core values into the modern art expressions that the majority of students like to see, so that the forms of socialist core values education are more closely related to the characteristics of young students, and are more easily loved and accepted by students, so that the students can accept the society in a subtle way. The core values of education, and the inner ring for their own values and values.

4.4 Combine core socialist values with social practice activities

Practice knows the truth, social practice activities are an important stage for college students to practice the unity of knowing and doing, and to understand the national conditions, social conditions, and people's feelings. In the process of social practice of college students, colleges and universities should fully integrate the education of socialist core values, so that students can feel the important thoughts and connotations of socialist core values in the process of personal experience and practice, and practice the core of socialism through practical actions. Values. First, it is possible to actively carry out voluntary activities with the nature of public welfare and the nature of services. By strengthening volunteer service and carrying out public welfare activities, we will continuously enhance students' awareness of dedication and service, strengthen their sense of responsibility, and help them establish correct values. Second, we must actively guide college students to learn from the masses in social practice and learn the good character of the patriotic, dedicated, honest, and friendly working people. The third is to let students fully understand and understand the society in practice, understand China's great achievements in economic construction, democracy and rule of law construction and social and people's livelihood construction, and transform the country's value goals and social value orientation into its own values.

4.5 Integrating the core socialist values with the construction of college campus culture

In the process of building university campus culture, colleges and universities should cultivate students' socialist core values and strengthen the students' correct understanding and understanding of socialist core values through the role of cultural education. Under the impetus of campus culture construction activities, we constantly cultivate the ideological and moral awareness of college students, and urge them to establish correct values, thus promoting the healthy growth of college students. Schools need to give full play to the important role of socialist core values, and under the guidance of socialist core values, continue to strengthen the campus culture construction of colleges and universities, through various network channels, radio and television, school newspapers and other means to educate students to form correct and healthy Values. In the process of building campus culture, colleges and universities should give full play to the natural environment of the campus and the educational function of the human environment and encourage students to form good values in daily campus life and study. Since student apartments are the main place for college students' daily life, colleges and universities should pay attention to the important role of apartment culture construction in strengthening students' socialist core value education, combine apartment culture atmosphere construction with image construction, and develop apartment hall and corridor culture, such as building The socialist core values of the apartment culture wall, at the same time combine the socialist core values with the cultural construction of the bedroom, lead the building of the wind and the style of the room with the socialist core values, and infiltrate the socialist core values in the daily life of the students.

5. Conclusion

General Secretary Xi Jinping pointed out: "We must vigorously carry forward and practice the core socialist values in the whole society, so that it is as ubiquitous as the air, and it is the common value pursuit of all the people, It becomes the unique spiritual pillar of our birth for the Chinese people, and the daily code of conduct used by the people. All colleges and universities should attach great importance to the education of students' socialist core values, fully integrate them into all aspects, levels and aspects of students' daily ideological and political work, and strive to cultivate young college students into the most active and active practice of socialist core values. It is cultivated to become a new era with ideals, skills, and responsibility.
