It has become a social problem that how to let their children enjoy good moral education, and will to be the backbone and four young (the youth have ideal, moral, culturally, disciplined) in new era. In our country, education has always been a core project, many people and local governments are thinking and advising on the development of education at all times, and put forward a variety of methods. Among them, the volunteer service of college students is the most common way of moral education in Chinese colleges and universities nowadays through experiment and data statistics, and it is also the latest educational channel, which plays an important role in the construction of the Party and Youth League. The following is a detailed analysis of the important role about the volunteer service of college students in universities' Party and Youth League building.

Since the beginning of the 21st century, the volunteer service of university school students has become more and more important. The phenomena are prevalent in major colleges and universities that student volunteer service exists in different forms with different reasons. The volunteer service exists with various activity modes and group types, colorful and new the theme, and many participants. And it is popularized by the majority of college student groups. At the same time, under the guidance and supervision of the Party branch of the colleges and the Communist Youth Youth League, the student volunteer service has both the activity effect and the educational significance, and make the volunteer service is organized, purposeful and directional. Throughout the ages, the experience witnessed that colleges and universities is a important step for students' growth, an important base for personnel training, and an important driving force for social development. Therefore, in the Party construction in colleges and universities, the volunteer service of students plays a position and role that cannot be replaced by others, just like the soil of the big tree. By the activities with flexible forms and various themes, we help the growth of students and promote the pace of the construction of Party and Youth League in colleges and universities. In other words, student volunteering activities have now become indispensable ways and channels in the development of moral education in colleges and universities all over China. It has become a kind of teaching activity that keeps pace with the times, and is full with entertainment. It conveys the political thoughts of the Party and Youth League timely to the student group, and is widely accepted. At the same time, the volunteer service team of university student has become a strong push to promote the construction in Party and Youth League, and it have a high sense of recognition in most, and even all university students. According to a survey, the volunteer service activity is recognized and accepted by 90% students, and it is considered that the its educational function presented is more innovative and timeliness than the traditional course teaching.

1. Basic Overview of Volunteer Service for students in Colleges and Universities

With the time went by, the Chinese University Students Volunteer Service is gradually formed. In the past, in activities and projects, the university students always volunteered to participate, plan and organize without asking for paying, just like selfless dedication, so it has formed a volunteer service activity for university students. At the same time, due to its own characteristics that no demand and no remuneration, it is also called a completely public welfare activity. In China, college students are in the stage of growth and recognition. Generally, in order to build students' independent thinking, unique understanding, and form their own values for the world, the volunteer service is the primary way except for their own education,. The reason for this is that in the students' volunteer service in colleges and universities, students can organize voluntary activities except the process of universal education, strengthen their understanding about themselves, meet more outstanding students, and at the same time can enhance ideological awareness and construct correct life values. Thus, various reasons form the all-round development of students' voluntary service nowadays. In the construction of colleges and universities, the traditional party group construction work is relatively conservative, rigid, can not keep pace with the times, the degree of attraction is not enough, and the power to push the development of the construction process is insufficient. Therefore, there is an urgent need for a new way to join, and student volunteering service is new way that we needed. Among college students, the volunteer service is already a common phenomenon, and the students' recognition degree of it is relatively high. To join the student volunteer service in the construction of Party and Youth Leagues, we can inject new blood, integrate new forces, and solve the problems and difficulties in the construction of colleges and universities. At the same time, it has formed three advantages for the construction of the Party and Youth League: Firstly, the interest of college students in the construction has been continuously strengthened; Secondly, the students have continuously studied the construction in this process; thirdly, it has made the construction of the Party and Youth League always make great progress.

2. The Characteristics of the Students' Volunteer Service in the Construction of Party and Youth League

(1) The construction of student volunteer service in Party and Youth League is timely. Students in colleges and universities can reflect the development of the times, and the students' thinking is also consistent with the needs of the times. It has been said that if the construction lacks overall planning and professional teachers' guidance, the degree of innovation will naturally be lower on the basis of the repetition of previous level[1]. Therefore, the primary task of the student volunteer service activities in the construction of the Party and Youth League is to study and publicize the advanced thinking, the latest trend and policies of our country. Through a variety of service activities and moral education activities, we will enhance our understanding of the construction of Party and Youth League, and then make the construction keeps pace with the times, and continuous develop. At the same time, the volunteer activities can make full use of the innovation, technology and other abilities of students. Most of the students will grasp the social focus of current political information, use technologies of multimedia and network and new media way, expand the spirit and content of voluntary activities, and pushed to the forefront of the times, so as to ensure the students volunteer service in construction of the Party and Youth League is innovative, time-oriented, social. Compared with other university activities, it is more ground-breaking, which attracts the participation of other students, and thus creates a campus culture full of times and positive.

(2) The voluntary service of the construction of Party and Youth League in universities has characteristics about public welfare and harmony. In term of public welfare, because of the characteristics of student volunteer activities, so each student is involved in the student volunteer activities is full of positive energy that they are selfless, and don't think the money, remuneration and fame as the purpose of participating in the activities. It helps fully develops the spirit of volunteer service and the thought of Party and Youth League construction, which enables more students to participate, guarantees the comprehensive development about construction of student volunteer service, and highlights the public welfare of student volunteer service activities perfectly. In terms of harmony, the 21st century is the era of harmony. Under the leadership of the concept of social harmony, through active student volunteer service activities, students can enhance their ability, improve their cultivation, increase their ideological awareness, and form their own values of life. And in the construction work of the Party and Youth League, through the promotion of our Party's advanced ideas and work spirit, it can lead the majority students to actively join and participate in this process, cultivate their own ability, build a harmonious atmosphere, and form a harmonious society.

(3) The voluntary service for university students in the construction of Party and Youth League is universal. Student volunteer service activities in colleges and universities are very common and recognized with great reputation. Generally, when launching voluntary service activities, students will actively participate in. According to the survey, this is a method the most recognized by parents, and is a channel to enrich students' spare time and knowledge system. Therefore, the construction of students' volunteer service is universal. Moreover, many students are also actively cooperating with the Party and Youth League construction work, putting the construction study in the first place in many aspects, and spreading the advanced spirit and thought of our country and our Party. This made more people to join in, making this kind of atmosphere become universal and spreading the patriotism and positive thoughts to the deep field, adding honor to the Party and Youth League construction work in colleges and universities.

3. The Important Role of University Students' Volunteer Service in the Party and Youth League Construction

(1) The voluntary service of university students guarantees the development of the construction in Party and Youth League.

With the improvement of China's strength and the continuous development of education, students have gradually become an important stone of the development of this era. Therefore, in order to ensure the development of the construction in Party and Youth League, students' volunteer service is particularly important. Only by giving full play to the role of university students' voluntary service can we make the construction more prominent. In other words, students' volunteer service activities can better promote the pace of Party and Youth League construction in universities and colleges, and then find the direction of community development track. The pursuit and value embodiment of college students in China is more in line with the purpose of volunteer service activities in universities and colleges, and meanwhile, student volunteer service activities can also cultivate the comprehensive ability of them. In the process of carrying out voluntary service activities, as students are still in the growth stage that many aspects are not mature, so it is necessary to improve the their seriousness, carefulness and ability in the Party and Youth league construction. Only in this way can we enhance the development of students themselves and the construction of the Party and the League, turn the construction into the second class of students, improve students' ability, deepen the development of the construction of the Party and the League in colleges and universities, and let college students volunteer service to guarantee the development of the construction of the Party and the League.

(2) College students' volunteer service is an important part of the construction of Party and Youth League.

Over the years, university students are the supporters of our party's advanced ideas, such as the May Fourth Movement. They have strong learning ability, endowed with innovative spirit and high ideological awareness to assist the Party and Youth League construction develop better. Due to historical reasons, university students are widely involved in volunteer service activities. Through a long period of development, students' volunteer service activities have become an important part of the construction of the Party and the League, and play a role in promoting the development of the construction of it in colleges and universities. Moreover, the role is mutually beneficial for university students. The students can contribute to the construction of the Party and Youth League by participating in voluntary activities, and the construction also creates an opportunity for students to develop themselves that they can improve their ability through it to be the second classroom. Therefore, student volunteers can promote the construction of the Party and the League and inject new ideas into the construction in universities and colleges. And the construction of the Party and Youth League can also do service for the development of college students. The two are indispensable and complement each other. At the same time, in terms of the construction and development of the Party and the League, the parties and the leagues can fully realize what is needed in the process about the construction through the volunteer service of college students, and keep pace with The Times.

(3) The various students' volunteer activities have expanded the construction of the Party and Youth League.

University students are the youth of the new era, they have the open vision of keeping pace with The Times, and high quality. This condition has been effectively guaranteed for the deeply construction of volunteer service for university students in the construction of the Party and Youth League, which enables them to carry out many kinds of innovative forms of volunteer service activities. For example, the Party and Youth League construction in colleges and universities should be publicized through artistic performances, and strengthen the party and youth league construction by Internet technology. This combination about network thinking of new era and advanced means, the construction of the Party and Youth League has become very interesting. It can be seen that various student volunteer activities have expanded the construction of the Party and the League, innovated the working methods of the construction in colleges and universities, strengthened the moral education of students, and publicized the excellent traditional national culture of China.
