Abstract: As a forward-looking, realistic, theoretical and practical important subject, the study of ideological and political education governance in the perspective of modernization of national governance is not only the realistic requirement of ideological and political education modernization itself, but also the era requirement of the modernization of national governance for ideological and political education governance. Constructing and improving the governance of ideological and political education is an important reflection of the modernization of national governance system and governance capacity in the ideological field. It is of great theoretical and practical significance for the development and perfection of Ideological and political education to explore the internal relationship between the governance of ideological and political education and the modernization of national governance and scientifically understand the status and role of the governance of ideological and political education in the process of modernization of national governance.

1. Introduction

Ideological and political education, as an important part of national ideology and ideology and culture, is an important content and special way of governance in the modernization of national governance. The overall promotion and coordinated development of the modernization of state governance requires that ideological and political education adapt to the new theme of the times, adjust and improve according to the characteristics, needs and laws of state governance, and optimize its own function, which puts forward the practical subject of the transformation of ideological and political education function. Ideological and political education must be highly conscious of theory and practice, actively respond to the important decision-making of the Party and the state to promote the modernization of the state governance system and governance capacity, plan and promote the transformation of its own functions guided by the modernization of state governance, so as to enhance the scientificity, pertinence and effectiveness of its functions and ensure the realization of the goal of the modernization of state governance.

2. The position and function of ideological and political education governance in the modernization of state governance

Modernization of state governance requires that ideological and political education in the whole country cohere the consensus of governance based on the Chinese Dream, and the governance of Ideological and political education itself must follow the internal operation logic of the modernization of state governance, in order to accurately define the status and role of Ideological and political education governance in the modernization of state governance in the interaction between the two.

2.1. The position of ideological and political education governance in the modernization of state governance

The important position of Ideological and political education governance in the process of modernization of national governance is determined by two factors. One is the specific content of modernization of national governance, and the other is the intrinsic characteristics of Ideological and political education governance. Modernization of state governance includes formal and informal institutional governance, and governance of Ideological and political education belongs to informal institutional governance. Ideological and political education governance should solve the problem of what kind of people to train and how to train people, and shoulder the important responsibility of training qualified management talents for the modernization of national governance. The status of Ideological and political education governance in the modernization of national governance is reflected in two aspects as shown in Figure 1 below.

3. Ways to realize the modernization of ideological and political education governance

In the modernization of the governance system of Ideological and political education, the key is to formulate a complete system of laws and regulations and document policies. It is necessary to combine top-level design with micro-strategies. While perfecting the existing systems and regulations, we should actively carry out system innovation. At the same time, it should choose various document policies to form a governance system of Ideological and political education with Chinese characteristics. In the modernization of governance ability of Ideological and political education, the key is to improve the executive power of various systems, regulations and document policies, to realize the value of governance system through strong implementation, and to provide rich and vivid practical experience for the improvement of governance system, so as to promote the improvement and development of governance system.

3.1. Integrating media resources and moral resources

Integrating media resources, combining scientificity with interest and being accepted and digested by people better will help to enhance people's national pride and confidence and improve people's moral accomplishment. Explore excellent moral resources, make them achieve creative transformation and innovative development, and effectively connect with the excellent moral resources of modern society, build a moral resources system with national and contemporary characteristics, and provide effective moral resources for ideological and political education. Create a good moral education environment, and with the help of the power of mass media, improve the appeal and attraction of Ideological and political education governance, in order to achieve the goal of environmental education.

3.2. Utilizing network governance to improve the level of governance modernization

Modern ideological and political education governance activities should be carried out smoothly, make full use of information technology, and strengthen the construction of network carriers, which is the requirement of the times to improve the ability of Ideological and political education modernization. Through scientific and effective feedback information, it can adjust various governance behaviors, construct and improve the governance information system of modern ideological and political education, improve the pertinence of Ideological and political education, expand the universality, comprehensiveness and self-selection of governance, and ensure the normal operation of various activities from the technical level. Make full use of new media to carry out ideological and political education governance, establish network opinion team, and make full use of social mainstream media to lead mainstream values, make network governance an effective means of Ideological and political education governance, and play a constructive role in improving ideological and political education governance.

4. Conclusions

The modernization of Ideological and political education governance system and governance capacity will help ideological and political education governance better fulfill the mission of propaganda and education of socialist ideology, and assume the responsibility of training qualified governance talents for the modernization of national governance. As a systematic project, ideological and political education needs to be absorbed and deepened on the basis of inheritance and reference. At the same time, attention should be paid to the exchange and integration with other disciplines, so as to improve the governance system of Ideological and political education and explore effective ways to improve the governance ability of Ideological and political education. It is a forward-looking, realistic, theoretical and contemporary subject to study the governance of Ideological and political education from the perspective of modernization of national governance, which has important theoretical and practical significance not only for the modernization of national governance, but also for the development and improvement of Ideological and political education itself.
