Abstract: The combination of the student's ideological and political education and the work of the party building is the focus of the current teaching work, which has achieved some effect in the process of practical application, and has received wide attention from the society. In this paper, the present situation of the development of students' ideological and political education and the work of the Party building in the new era is described, the specific combination value is analyzed in detail, and the development countermeasures of the two are put forward, and the aim of this paper is to lay the foundation for the smooth progress of the research work in the future.

1. Introduction

The importance of the combination of the ideological and political education of the students and the work of the Party building is significant, but there are some significant problems in the actual operation. Research on the value of the combination of the two, give full play to the education function, pay attention to the integration of the relevant management personnel, and always stick to the innovative thinking, so as to adapt it to the current situation of the development of the current Party building.

2. The Current Situation of the Combination of Ideological and Political Education and Party Building in the New Era

In the work link of combining students' ideological and political education with party building under the background of the new era, the relevant managers do not fully realize the importance of the two work, put the teaching emphasis on the classroom teaching link, ignore the party building work, and the combination of ideological and political education and party building work is not obvious. Although some schools in some areas carry out ideological and political education, but the formalization phenomenon is more serious. The phenomenon of unclear power and responsibility of party building occurs from time to time, and the communication and coordination ability between departments is limited, which can not give full play to its advantages in the actual decision-making link. Some staff members have a negative working attitude and do not have the tasks assigned to the party organizations. Finish on time, the effect of organization and management is not obvious, the key data information can not be well shared. In the process of ideological and political education and party building, the phenomenon of unclear power and responsibility occurs from time to time, and the rights of party building departments are more chaotic. In order to reduce the pressure of work, illegal operations often occur. The party building organization is independent, which is out of touch with teaching and student management, which seriously restricts the effective integration between the two. At the same time, the lack of innovative spirit of party building in schools, the tradition of management model is not conducive to improving the level of ideological and political education, students' enthusiasm for ideological and political courses is not high, and the coordination ability between the two is limited.

3. Research on the Value of the Combination of Students' Ideological and Political Education and Party Building under the Background of the New Period

3.1 Contribute to Improving the Quality of Party Building

The value of the combination of students' ideological and political education and party building work is more significant, which is the premise of improving the quality of party building work. Under the background of the new period, party building work has become the focus of the current school work. It is necessary to fully demonstrate the advantages of the party's advanced nature and clarify the connotation of the party building work. At present, the focus of teaching work is to cultivate students' innovative spirit and practical ability. We should always follow the actual development of teaching objectives, combine with ideological and political education, and establish correct values. At present, with the deepening of teaching reform, students are vulnerable to various factors in the process of life and learning. Ideological education is the key, which needs to be carried out step by step according to the actual needs of the current physical and mental development of students. The effective combination of the law of Party building and the law of students' growth will help to improve the quality of Party building work [1].

3.2 It is Helpful to Improve the Teaching Level of Ideological and Political Education

The students can be influenced by many factors in the process of growth, and there are differences in the cognition of the thought, and the work of the students' ideological and political education is the key to ensure the smooth implementation of the follow-up teaching. In order to fully respect the students' individual differences, there is a view to the ideological and political education. To solve the problems existing in the study and life of the students, the effect of ideological and political education should be promoted. The school has put more emphasis on the student's ideological and educational work and appropriate additional courses. The ideological and political education is an important part of the party building work. Pay attention to improving the level of party construction, make scientific ideological and political teaching plans according to the actual development of party members and the masses, and effectively play the political function of Ideological and political education.

3.3 The Advantages of Effectively Playing the Function of Educating and Educating People

The combination of the ideological and political education of the students and the work of the Party building needs to give full play to the educational function of the Party organization, to link the construction of the Party organization and the education effectively, and to coordinate the responsibilities of the various organizations of the school. The party branch of the school is an important base of the ideological and political education, and as the focus of the current teaching work, the school party branch is the focus of the current teaching work, and it has always adhered to the leadership of the Communist Party of China, and must set up the unity consciousness in strict accordance with the party's political direction. And the education function is fully displayed. In the course of ideological and political education work, the theoretical knowledge and practical experience should be fully integrated, and the students' psychological development status in real time Make a timely solution to the confusion of the students, and ensure the orderly implementation of the ideological and political work and the party building [2].

4. Practical Countermeasures for the Combination of Students' Ideological and Political Education and Party Building under the Background of the New Period

4.1 Take Advantage of Information Technology

The key to the combination of students' ideological and political education and party building is to make scientific and rational use of information technology. Under the background of the new period, with the continuous development of modern scientific and information technology, we should always maintain the spirit of innovation in carrying out the work, which is helpful to improve the overall quality of work to a certain extent. First, with the help of network resources, different forms of scientific and technological activities are carried out, and students are actively encouraged to participate in the competition, and campus culture is effectively integrated into it, so as to deepen students' understanding of ideological and political education, and fully excavate the party building elements in the competition, which is helpful to enhance the penetration effect between the two. Second, build a network publicity On the education platform, the relevant teachers effectively integrate the excellent party building resources and ideological and political education resources on the network, classify them and send them to the platform regularly. Students can screen resources according to the actual characteristics of their own development, which is helpful to enrich the knowledge reserve and lay the foundation for the smooth progress of follow-up teaching. Third, with the help of technical means to construct the party building information classroom, hire professional scholars to guide, master the law of Internet development, display the teaching resources collected on the network in front of the students, and guide the students to truly understand the relationship between the party building work and the ideological and political education work. .

4.2 Focus on the Combination of Concept Innovation

The combination of the ideological and political education of the students and the work of the Party building needs to focus on the innovation of the concept so as to meet the actual characteristics of the students' physical and mental development in the context of the new period. First, we always stick to the innovative thinking, build a good party building and ideological and political education atmosphere for the students in the daily study and the link of life, and help the students to set up the correct world outlook, the outlook on life and the values, and lead the smooth implementation of the ideological and political education. Secondly, we should fully understand the importance of network communication, fully display the advantages of party building information, and integrate with the ideological and political education work, and gradually improve the understanding of the importance of the integration of the two. Optimize the school management system, fully demonstrate the effectiveness of the Party construction work, pay attention to ideological politics and the sublimation of the Party building concept, to some extent, the innovation and improvement of the traditional education concept. Third, according to the characteristics of the actual development of the current ideological and political teaching system, the teacher needs to make continuous innovation on the curriculum model. Teachers need to convert their own teaching concept in a timely manner, go deep into the classroom, strengthen communication with students, actively encourage teachers to the excellent schools to learn, establish advanced cultural thoughts, formulate long-term development plans for students, and help to improve their own business level [3].

4.3 Proper Integration into the Campus Culture

The combination of students' ideological and political education and party building needs to be carried out with the help of the advantages of campus culture. Under the background of the new period, there are differences among campus cultures in different regions, and the effective integration of campus culture into it meets the actual needs of the current teaching reform. First, the school needs to fully show its own advantages, in order to promote the all-round development of students as the teaching goal, always adhere to the leadership of the Party in the ideological and political education work, can apply their own scientific research level in teaching management, its scientific research results are an important part of campus culture, and it's the key to ensure the ideological and political education work to provide teachers with growth space. Second, regularly carry out different forms of campus cultural activities, fully excavate party building resources, actively encourage teachers and students to participate in the activities, pay attention to strengthening exchanges and cooperation between the two, help to narrow the distance with students, properly integrate the concept of ideological and political education, and help students master the connotation of party building work. Improve the traditional ideological and political education model through the form of campus cultural activities. Third, pay attention to strengthening the construction of study style, give full play to the advantages of the student party branch, play an exemplary role, set an example, and share the experience in the party construction work conference, which will help to improve the innovation spirit of students and improve the efficiency of the party construction work.

4.4 Strengthen the Construction of Talent Team

The combination of the ideological and political education of the students and the work of the Party building needs to focus on strengthening the construction of the talent team and providing the intellectual support for the smooth progress of the work. First, we should conduct regular ideological and political education and Party building work-related knowledge training conference, and invite excellent experts and scholars from the society to guide them, and make timely correction to the problems existing in the actual operation, so as to ensure the smooth progress of the follow-up management. Second, the ideological and political and Party building team building should be based on the current education law. We should master the principle and method of the combination of the two, care for every student and be a good teacher and friend. Through the promotion of their own sense of responsibility, so as to improve the level of education and teaching. Third, the school should provide the professional development platform for the teachers, actively encourage the ideological and political party to communicate with the party building work professionals, to promote the pride of the profession in the current professional reality, pay attention to the leading of the value of the teacher's personnel, and carry out different forms of theme activities, The attitude and ability of the teachers to carry out the work of ideological and political and party building, and the ability to carry out all-round evaluation, are familiar with the difficult points of the work of the party and help to improve the quality of the talent team.

5. Conclusion

Under the background of the new era, there are various ways to combine the ideological and political education of students with the work of party building. In the practical link, we should strictly follow the current ideological and political work and the law of the development of party building work, effectively apply modern science and information technology, and effectively integrate with campus culture. Paying attention to strengthening the level of talent team construction helps to ensure the coordinated development of the two.
